

Technology

Technology integration is the cornerstone of our district's effort to ensure all students achieve technology literacy. We believe access to technical resources will provide students the opportunity to learn using various modalities, thereby assisting to direct students' learning to their specific needs. The use of advanced technologies has begun to shape how our instructors teach all students and facilitate learning. As well, the implementation of administrative technologies has enabled administrators to be able to access and analyze student data more effectively.

- 2010-2013 District Technology Plan