WRITING

I can say “goodbye” by writing a conclusion.

Today you will be writing conclusions in your opinion writing piece. Conclusions are a way to say “goodbye” to your readers. Your conclusion is the very last sentence on your opinion writing piece!

Today's Lesson

Building New Snap Words into Memory

Your turn to practice!

1. Write the four new snap words in your notebook.
2. Create a sentence using a snap word but leave a space for the snap word. DO NOT write it!
3. When you have all four sentences, find a member of your family to guess the missing snap word in each sentence. Can they do it?!

READING

I can connect the parts of a story together.

Today we are going to learn how use the details that we notice in our books to connect parts of the story together!
