

Monday's Weekly Update

Weekly emails are sent home every Monday from your child's teacher. These emails provide detailed information regarding curriculum, special information, special days, and all of the fun and important things going on in the classroom each week.

Please refer to weekly emails for specific classroom information!